Scripture Passages

Exodus 20:1-26

1 And God spoke all these words: 2 "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. 3 "You shall have no other gods before me. 4 "You shall not make for yourself an image in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. 5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, 6 but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments. 7 "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name. 8 "Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy. 9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work, 10 but the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your male or female servant, nor your animals, nor any foreigner residing in your towns. 11 For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy. 12 "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you. 13 "You shall not murder. 14 "You shall not commit adultery. 15 "You shall not steal. 16 "You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor. 17 "You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor." 18 When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance 19 and said to Moses, "Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die." 20 Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning." 21 The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was. 22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Tell the Israelites this: 'You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven: 23 Do not make any gods to be alongside me; do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gods of gold. 24 " 'Make an altar of earth for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, your sheep and goats and your cattle. Wherever I cause my name to be honored, I will come to you and bless you. 25 If you make an altar of stones for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for you will defile it if you use a tool on it. 26 And do not go up to my altar on steps, or your private parts may be exposed.'

Hope's Understanding of Giving

Giving is a worshipful response to God. All of life is in response to how God has already given. Christ has freed us to truly live. We give not because we have to, but because we get to. This God who frees us is also the Creator and true owner of everything. We are simply His stewards, and are called to be intentionally mindful with how we steward His resources.

“I am the LORD”

Exodus 20:1-2

¹ And God spoke all these words:

² “I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

The Vertical and Horizontal Commandments

The Four “Vertical” Commandments

Commandment #1

Exodus 20:3-11

³ “You shall have no other gods before me.

⁴ “You shall not make for yourself an image in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. ⁵ You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶ but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

The formulation of this command is not “Thou shalt not,” but rather “There will not be to you.” The statement is not an imperative command, but an indicative, whereby Yahweh in light of the exodus declares the banishment of all other gods (cf. Psalm 82).

~ Henning Lothar Gert Count Reventlow, German Protestant Theologian

The Four “Vertical” Commandments

Commandment #2

Exodus 20:3-11

³ “You shall have no other gods before me.

⁴ “You shall not make for yourself an image in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. ⁵ You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me, ⁶ but showing love to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

There has been a lot of teaching about generational sin. I don't think what is being said here is "God will actively visit on my children whatever my unique sin is." I think what (God) is saying is, "Do you see that there is a relationship – that the sin of the parent becomes the most vulnerable area of the child because you've communicated to them a set of values? You've communicated to them a picture of who I am in the way that you've lived your life. You have carved your idol in their very presence. Do you think that your children won't bow down to that as well?"

~ Jen Wilkin, Podcast: Exodus II, week 3: The Ten Words (part 1)

The Four “Vertical” Commandments

Commandment #3

Exodus 20:3-11

⁷ “You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

So, literally, here is how this command is translated, “You shall not bear up or lift up the name of your God to falsehood or emptiness.” This means the way that we speak about God and the way that we credit God with our actions or our motives says something about who God is. And either it tells the truth about him or it tells a lie about him...So when you don't take his name in vain it means you do not misrepresent the character of God in your thoughts, words, or deeds.

~ Jen Wilkin, Podcast: Exodus II, week 3: The Ten Words (part 1)

The Six “Horizontal” Commandments

Moses speaks with the people

The Gospel
According to Moses
a study of exodus

“You have heard it said...”

Matthew 5:21-24

²¹ “You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, ‘You shall not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.’ ²² But I tell you that anyone who is angry with a brother or sister will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to a brother or sister, ‘Raca,’ is answerable to the court. And anyone who says, ‘You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire of hell.

²³ “Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, ²⁴ leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to them; then come and offer your gift.”

“Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Romans 13:8–10

⁸ Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law.

⁹ The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You shall not covet,” and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” ¹⁰ Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

Obedience is the response of God's people to his previous operations of grace (i.e. his salvation); relationship precedes responsibility, but relationship does not preclude responsibility!

Divine demand, or law, is intended for those already within the community of God; law is not a condition for salvation. Instead, it provides direction for sanctification, that the children of God might become as holy as God himself is.

~ Kuruvilla, Abraham. Privilege the Text!: A Theological Hermeneutic for Preaching (p. 190, 208). Moody Publishers. Kindle Edition.

Question to consider and discuss:

Do you have the relationship? Have you first responded to God's work of salvation through the cross of Jesus?
