Scripture Passages

(taken from the New International Version)

Habakkuk 3:1-19

¹A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet. On shigionoth.

²LORD, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds, O LORD. Renew them in our day, in our time make them known; in wrath remember mercy.

³God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah His glory covered the heavens and his praise filled the earth. ⁴His splendor was like the sunrise; rays flashed from his hand, where his power was hidden. ⁵Plague went before him; pestilence followed his steps. ⁶He stood, and shook the earth; he looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains crumbled and the age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal. ⁷I saw the tents of Cushan in distress, the dwellings of Midian in anguish. ⁸Were you angry with the rivers, O LORD? Was your wrath against the streams? Did you rage against the sea when you rode with your horses and your victorious chariots?

⁹You uncovered your bow, you called for many arrows. Selah You split the earth with rivers; ¹⁰the mountains saw you and writhed. Torrents of water swept by; the deep roared and lifted its waves on high. ¹¹Sun and moon stood still in the heavens at the glint of your flying arrows, at the lightning of your flashing spear. ¹²In wrath you strode through the earth and in anger you threshed the nations. ¹³You came out to deliver your people, to save your anointed one.

You crushed the leader of the land of wickedness, you stripped him from head to foot. Selah ¹⁴With his own spear you pierced his head when his warriors stormed out to scatter us, gloating as though about to devour the wretched who were in hiding. ¹⁵You trampled the sea with your horses, churning the great waters.

¹⁶I heard and my heart pounded, my lips quivered at the sound; decay crept into my bones, and my legs trembled. Yet I will wait patiently for the day of calamity to come on the nation invading 17Though the fig-tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, ¹⁸yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will be joyful in God my Savior. ¹⁹The Sovereign LORD is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, he enables me to go on the heights. MAJORING

a five-week look into the Big Questions of Habakkuk

1. Habakkuk's First B. Q.

Habakkuk 1:2-4

²How long, O LORD, must I call for help, but you do not listen? Or cry out to you, "Violence!" but you do not save? ³Why do you make me look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrong? Destruction and violence are before me; there is strife, and conflict abounds. ⁴Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails. The wicked hem in the righteous, so that justice is perverted.

2. God's Response to Habakkuk's Complaint

Habakkuk 1:5-10

⁵"Look at the nations and watch—and be utterly amazed. For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe, even if you were told. ⁶I am raising up the Babylonians, that ruthless and impetuous people, who sweep across the whole earth to seize dwelling-places not their own. ⁷They are a feared and dreaded people; they are a law to themselves and promote their own honor.

Is he safe?

"Safe?" said Mr Beaver; "don't you hear what Mrs Beaver tells you? Who said anything about safe? 'Course he isn't safe. But he's good. He's the King, I tell you."

3. Habakkuk's response is a protest

Habakkuk 1:13

13Your eyes are too pure to look on evil; you cannot tolerate wrong.
 Why then do you tolerate the treacherous?
 Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves?

Fairness

Justice

4. "I am just!" Five woes for the Babylonians:

Habakkuk 2:6

6"Will not all of them taunt him with ridicule and scorn, saying,

4. "I am just!" Five woes for the Babylonians: Woe #1

Habakkuk 2:6b-8

"Woe to him who piles up stolen goods and makes himself wealthy by extortion! How long must this go on?' Will not your debtors suddenly arise? Will they not wake up and make you tremble? Then you will become their victim. Because you have plundered many nations, the peoples who are left will plunder you. For you have shed man's blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

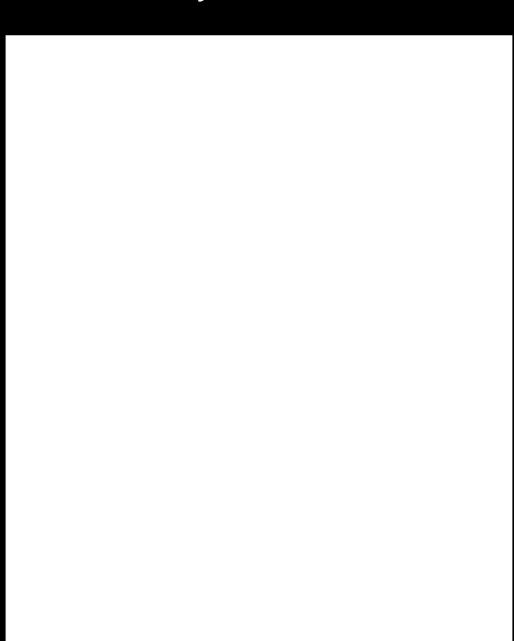

Extortion

4. "I am just!" Five woes for the Babylonians: Woe #2

Habakkuk 2:9-11

⁹"Woe to him who builds his realm by unjust gain to set his nest on high, to escape the clutches of ruin! ¹⁰You have plotted the ruin of many peoples, shaming your own house and forfeiting your life. ¹¹The stones of the wall will cry out, and the beams of the woodwork will echo it.

Unjust Gain

4. "I am just!" Five woes for the Babylonians: Woe #3

Habakkuk 2:12-14

¹²"Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and establishes a town by crime! ¹³Has not the LORD Almighty determined that the people's labor is only fuel for the fire, that the nations exhaust themselves for nothing? ¹⁴For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

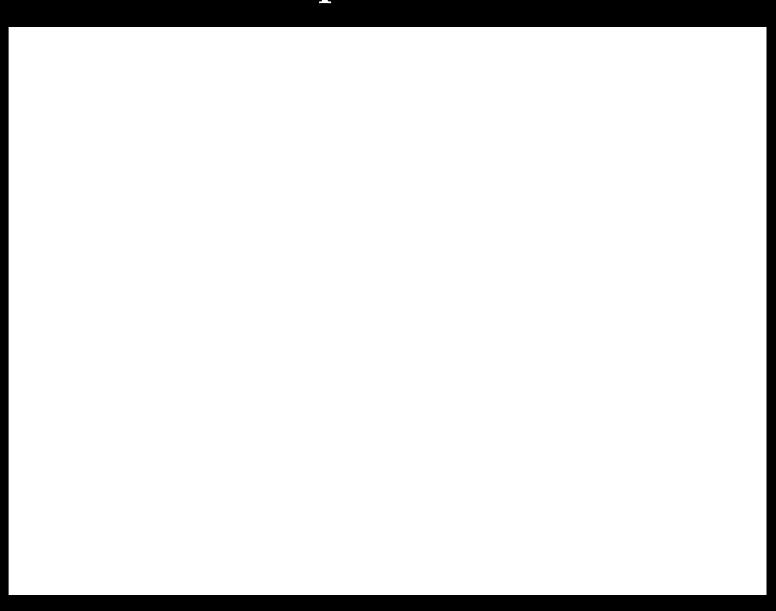

4. "I am just!" Five woes for the Babylonians: Woe #4

Habakkuk 2:15-17

15"Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbors, pouring it from the wineskin till they are drunk, so that he can gaze on their naked bodies. ¹⁶You will be filled with shame instead of glory. Now it is your turn! Drink and be exposed! The cup from the LORD's right hand is coming round to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. ¹⁷The violence you have done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and your destruction of animals will terrify you. For you have shed man's blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

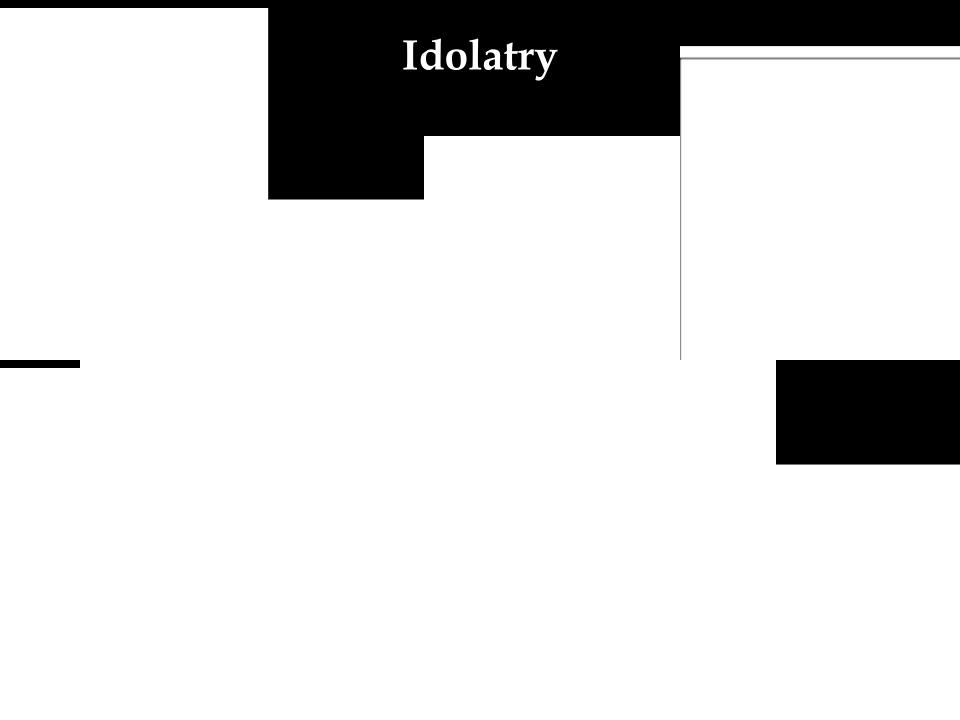

Exploitation

4. "I am just!" Five woes for the Babylonians: Woe #5

Habakkuk 2:18-20

¹⁸"Of what value is an idol, since a man has carved it? Or an image that teaches lies? For he who makes it trusts in his own creation; he makes idols that cannot speak. ¹⁹Woe to him who says to wood, 'Come to life!' Or to lifeless stone, 'Wake up!' Can it give guidance? It is covered with gold and silver; there is no breath in it. ²⁰But the LORD is in his holy temple; let all the earth be silent before him."
