Introduction

Week #1: The Counterfeit of Porn

Week #2: Sexuality Outside the Lines

This Week
Moving Forward
from False Intimacy

“defeated, broken down, torn apart”

#1: Acknowledge What God
Already Knows

- Luke 5:30-32
- 1 John 1:8, 10

The danger of getting to know one another

#2: Receive What God’s Already
Given

- John 1:9-13
- 1 John 1:9

It’s your flesh.

#3: Live What God’s Already
Promised

What is a promise?

- Romans 4:19-21
- Galatians 5:16-17
- 1 John 3:1-2

Application

Where does this road get me?

Luke 5:30-32

30But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to his disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?” 31Jesus answered them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 32I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

John 1:9-13

9The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. 10He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. 11He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. 12Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God – 13children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband’s will, but born of God.

1 John 1:8-10

8If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Romans 4:19-21

19He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. 20No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, 21fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

SERMON mini-SERIES: False Intimacy

Study Guide for Personal or Small Group Growth

April 3rd, 2011 – Hope Community Church (written by Pastor Cor Chmielecki)

Week Three – Moving Forward from False Intimacy

Opening Questions:

- Have you seen the movie Cast Away? If so, what were your impressions of the film? In what ways did you find yourself identifying with the main character Tom Hanks played? If placed in the same scenario, what do you feel would be your biggest struggles? And with returning to the States, what do you think would be the most difficult adjustments?
- Pastor Cor shared about a Hope attendee that said she felt “defeated, broken down, torn apart.” Do any of those words resonate with you in your struggle with sexual sin? In what ways have you seen God work in your life in this area, whether previously or as a result of this sermon series? In what ways are you still trusting God to move in your life?

Digging into the Topic:

#1: Acknowledge What God Already Knows

Luke 5:30-32

30But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to his disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?” 31Jesus answered them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 32I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

1. Pastor Cor shared about the importance of acknowledging our sin before God. What does this look like for you? In what ways is acknowledging our sin made easier by being a part of Hope? In what ways is it made harder?
2. What do you make of this passage where it is the religious (or church!) leaders that have the toughest time realizing their true condition? What implications are there for us who attend Hope regularly?

#2: Receive What God’s Already Given

John 1:9-13

9The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. 10He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. 11He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. 12Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God— 13children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband’s will, but born of God.

1. Have you received Christ into your life? What were the circumstances surrounding this commitment? Who was influential in your coming to faith?
2. If not, what is keeping you from making such a commitment?
3. In what ways are you currently receiving afresh the good news of Jesus Christ? What does it look like to treasure Christ anew today? In what ways are you asking the Lord to restore to you the joy of your salvation?

1 John 1:8-10

8If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1. What does this passage speak to regarding the deceitfulness of sin? In what ways do you feel like you've deceived yourself?
2. What is God's role in this passage? If that's true, what does that mean for you?
3. What does confession mean? What would it look like to do this? What might this mean for you to carry out with trusted people in your life?
4. The Lord promise to cleanse and forgive. Are you able to hear that and receive it in your life? If not, what keeps you from experiencing the grace of God?

#3: Live What God's Already Promised

Romans 4:19-21

19He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. 20No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, 21fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised.

1. What do you make of this passage? What stands out? What do you know about Abraham?
2. We read "fully convinced" and "no distrust." What do you understand this to mean? How does this challenge you in clinging to the promises of God?

Baptism and Communion

1. Have you made the decision to be baptized? If not, why not? If so, what did that mean for you?
2. In what ways do you seek to make communion an ongoing and powerful experience in your relationship with God?

Application

1. Which of the three pieces of this journey is the toughest? Which one do you find yourself in right now?
2. Do you find yourselves at a crossroads? What are the options in front of you regarding the fight against sexual sin and for true intimacy?
3. What promises are you banking on in your relationship with God?

False Intimacy: Sexuality Outside the Lines

What lines do you see?

Are you willing to trust God with the lines he has drawn?

Hope Quote

I hope this email goes to the right person, to the man who preached Sunday night, March 27 on the topic of Sexuality Outside the Lines. (We) went to Hope Community for the first time this last Sunday, March 27...when you started talking about homosexuality I was disagreeing with your point of view. I respected it but disagreed...Because of what you had to say about homosexuality I did not want to come back to Hope. (We) talked about this on our walk back to my place and during dinner. We both didn't feel like going back to Hope.

Hope Quote

We both felt defeated, broken down, torn apart [in what it spoke about our relationship]. What you had to say had me still thinking about it the next morning. We talked about it Monday evening for a long time. I said that of all the churches that we have been visiting Hope Community is the only one that has challenged us, got us to think and question what we are doing...It was a hard sermon to hear. That feeling of being defeated is not fun, but we appreciate the challenge. We feel that is what it should be about even though it isn't easy.

HELP!

We both had done the math. Kelly added it all up and... knew she had to let me go. I added it up, and knew that I had... lost her. 'cos I was never gonna get off that island. I was gonna die there, totally alone. I was gonna get sick, or get injured or something. The only choice I had, the only thing I could control was when, and how, and where it was going to happen. So... I made a rope and I went up to the summit, to hang myself. I had to test it, you know? Of course. You know me. And the weight of the log, snapped the limb of the tree, so I-I - , I couldn't even kill myself the way I wanted to. I had power over nothing.

#3: Live What God's Already Promised

HELP!

And that's when this feeling came over me like a warm blanket. I knew, somehow, that I had to stay alive. Somehow. I had to keep breathing. Even though there was no reason to hope. And all my logic said that I would never see this place again. So that's what I did. I stayed alive. I kept breathing. And one day my logic was proven all wrong because the tide came in, and gave me a sail. And now, here I am. I'm back. In Memphis, talking to you. I have ice in my glass... And I've lost her all over again. I'm so sad that I don't have Kelly. But I'm so grateful that she was with me on that island. And I know what I have to do now. I gotta keep breathing. Because tomorrow the sun will rise. Who knows what the tide could bring?

1 John 3:1-2

<sup>1</sup>See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is.

Romans 6:1-10

1What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? 2By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? 3Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. 5For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. 6We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. 7For one who has died has been set free from sin. 8Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. 9We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. 10For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.
