Gospel Application - "God knew the land was inhabited!"

2 Corinthians 12:7-10

<sup>7</sup>To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. <sup>8</sup>Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. <sup>9</sup>But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. <sup>10</sup>That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Deuteronomy 1:19-33

<sup>19</sup>Then, as the Lord our God commanded us, we set out from Horeb and went toward the hill country of the Amorites through all that vast and dreadful desert that you have seen, and so we reached Kadesh Barnea. <sup>20</sup>Then I said to you, "You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the Lord our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup>See, the Lord your God has given you the land. Go up and take possession of it as the Lord, the God of your fathers, told you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."

<sup>22</sup>Then all of you came to me and said, "Let us send men ahead to spy out the land for us and bring back a report about the route we are to take and the towns we will come to." <sup>23</sup>The idea seemed good to me; so I selected twelve of you, one man from each tribe. <sup>24</sup>They left and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and explored it. <sup>25</sup>Taking with them some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported, "It is a good land that the Lord our God is giving us."

<sup>26</sup>But you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of the Lord your God. <sup>27</sup>You grumbled in your tents and said, "The Lord hates us; so he brought us out of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where can we go? Our brothers have made us lose heart. They say, 'The people are stronger and taller than we are; the cities are large, with walls up to the sky. We even saw the Anakites there.'"

<sup>29</sup>Then I said to you, "Do not be terrified; do not be afraid of them. <sup>30</sup>The Lord your God, who is going before you, will fight for you, as he did for you in Egypt, before your very eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the desert. There you saw how the Lord your God carried you, as a father carries his son, all the way you went until you reached this place." <sup>32</sup>In spite of this, you did not trust in the Lord your God, <sup>33</sup>who went ahead of you on your journey, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to search out places for you to camp and to show you the way you should go.
