Romans 13:8-14

<sup>8</sup> Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup> The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You shall not covet,” and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Romans 13:8-14

<sup>10</sup> Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

<sup>11</sup> And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup> The night is nearly over; the day is almost here.

Romans 13:8-14

So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. <sup>13</sup> Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy.

<sup>14</sup> Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

It's not that hard to be the right parent for your own child. Listening, being supportive, encouraging activity and creativity, and establishing a secure family structure all go a long way toward providing the kind of childhood that help kids thrive. Unfortunately, even in the pursuit of these goals, parents can go too far by overscheduling kids, micromanaging them, refusing to recognize learning or emotional struggles for what they are, modeling unhealthy responses to stress, violating boundaries, or criticizing kids or comparing them to others – even siblings – out of frustration.”

A dark, cracked mirror with a jack-o'-lantern face in the center. The mirror is shattered, with numerous cracks radiating from a central point. The jack-o'-lantern face is carved into the center of the mirror, with triangular eyes and a wide, toothy grin. The background is black, and the overall atmosphere is dark and ominous.

<sup>7</sup> Then Nathan said to David, “You are the man! ... Why did you despise the word of the LORD by doing what is evil in his eyes?”

the greatest commandment is to love your neighbor as yourself and love your neighbor as I have loved you... Christ gave us plenty of examples of how he loved us. While we were still sinners he died for us so that we might be saved. Romans 5:8 slaps pretty hard in that context, meaning Christ holds us to a higher standard than just following a list -- he holds us to the pursuit of each individual... regardless of what they have done to you or are going through."

God is light; in him there is no darkness at all.
