

Questions For Discussion

- How would you describe God as the fountain of living waters to someone that has never been to church?
- Do you have a recent example in your life where God demonstrated Himself in this way, as a fountain, a spring, a source of life to you?
- How do we help each other to drink from the only good source of water? Do you think your group does this well?
- What are ways that you can live wettly/moistly? In a way that shows the high-quality H2O of Jesus?
- Was there something that came to mind during the sermon or now that you may need to repent of, a 'broken cistern that holds no water'?

Questions for Discussion

- How would you describe God as the fountain of living waters to someone that has never been to church?
- Do you have a recent example in your life where God demonstrated Himself in this way, as a fountain, a spring, a source of life to you?
- How do we help each other to drink from the only good source of water? Do you think your group does this well?
- What are ways that you can live wettly/moistly? In a way that shows the high-quality H2O of Jesus?
- Was there something that came to mind during the sermon or now that you may need to repent of, a 'broken cistern that holds no water'?