

- What comes to mind when you think of a consolation? Or a consolation prize?
- R.C. Sproul defines consolation as “‘The consolation of Israel.’ The phrase is used in the Bible to call attention to the Jewish hope of the coming of the Messiah. Those Jews who have groaned in times of bondage, wept in times of exile, who now were oppressed under the heavy burden of the tyranny of Rome, looked to heaven for their release from suffering. You see, it is people who experience consistent grief, frustration and pain who want to be consoled.” What are some things you have waited for (job, spouse, etc.) where you might never see them in your lifetime?
- How can Jesus be a consolation to you when you are suffering or in a season of waiting?
- How have you experienced Jesus as “division” in your life experiences?
- Praise God we live on this side of the cross, and we get to experience Christ piercing our souls! Do that together! In what specific ways are you thankful that Jesus has saved your soul?
