

Questions For Discussion

- What is your previous interaction with the book of Acts? Are you coming in new to this study, or do you have some preconceived notions of how our time in Acts is going to go? How can we depend on the Spirit to help us in our time in Acts?
- What would it take to grow your faith in Jesus? Him physically showing up? An audible voice from God? Is a historical, first-hand account, of a handful of people developing into the most diverse religion in the history of the world enough to put your faith in Jesus?
- When you think about trying to fix something, are you the kind of person who puts your head down and does everything you can to get it done, or are you more the “throw your hands up” because there doesn’t seem like anything can be done? Can you think of any examples of you doing that? Have you felt this way when it comes to the church or faith in someone else’s life?
- How can we pray that we will depend more on the Spirit in those moments, and what would that look like?

Questions for Discussion

- What is your previous interaction with the book of Acts? Are you coming in new to this study, or do you have some preconceived notions of how our time in Acts is going to go? How can we depend on the Spirit to help us in our time in Acts?
- What would it take to grow your faith in Jesus? Him physically showing up? An audible voice from God? Is a historical, first-hand account, of a handful of people developing into the most diverse religion in the history of the world enough to put your faith in Jesus?
- When you think about trying to fix something, are you the kind of person who puts your head down and does everything you can to get it done, or are you more the “throw your hands up” because there doesn’t seem like anything can be done? Can you think of any examples of you doing that? Have you felt this way when it comes to the church or faith in someone else’s life?
- How can we pray that we will depend more on the Spirit in those moments, and what would that look like?